Welcome to Conduit

Conduit is building the world's first decentralized quantum cloud-computing platform to meet the world's need for efficient, scalable, and flexible computing capacity. We bring:

1. Fast, affordable cloud computing
2. Quantum computing on the cloud.

Conduit is bringing Quantum to the cloud

- ▶ World's first decentralized Quantum cloud-computing initiative of Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) alumni
- ▶ Founded by first MIT-trained Quantum computing engineer and advised by leading pioneer in quantum computing Scott Aaronson
- ▶ Developing the “AirBnB for cloud computing”, and will be the first to make Quantum computing available globally

Cloud services market is on-track to double by 2020 from 2016*

Nearly 50% of earth is online and increasing penetration will strain inflexible, weak systems and challenge global resource availability****

Players are rushing to quantum computing market, but are developing incomplete, expensive solutions
